

A modern, high-ceilinged living room with brick walls, large windows, a fireplace, and a dining area. The room features a large, dark grey sectional sofa, a round black coffee table, and a dining table with red chairs. The ceiling is made of wood with exposed beams and modern lighting fixtures. The walls are made of brick, and there are several large windows with black frames. A fireplace with a wood-burning stove is visible on the right wall. The floor is made of concrete.
